KIRAN – SCHOLARSHIP AND MENTORING PROGRAMME

Persistent Foundation started Girl's scholarship program in the year 2010-11. Objective of the program is to help needy and competent girls to get educated, confident, skilled and employable.

Scope:

Current scope includes support for 40 girls across all locations (where Persistent offices exist) within India. Number of girls may be 40 or more as the scholarship amount may differ depending on the fee structure. These 40 girls include Computer Engineering, IT, Life Sciences, Computer Science and Computer Management.

Scholarship Amount:

Scholarship amount is decided on the fee structure of the Engineering colleges. Currently we provide maximum INR 40,000/- per year to each girl, till the completion of the education (maximum 4 years). We take a review of fee structure every three years and revise the amount.

Eligibility Criteria:

Eligibility criteria are decided by the trustees from time to time. Currently the criteria are as follows:

- First year Engineering Girls pursuing Computer Engineering or Information Technology course with 70% marks in 10th and 12th Standard
